THE WISCONSIN MAGAZINE OF HISTORY

SEPTEMBER

1922

VOLUME VI

NUMBER 1

PUBLISHED QUARTERLY
BY THE STATE HISTORICAL SOCIETY OF WISCONSIN

THE STATE HISTORICAL SOCIETY OF WISCONSIN

The STATE HISTORICAL SOCIETY OF WISCONSIN is a state-aided corporation whose function is the cultivation and encouragement of the historical interests of the State. To this end it invites your coöperation; membership is open to all, whether residents of Wisconsin or elsewhere. The dues of annual members are two dollars, payable in advance; of life members, twenty dollars, payable once only. Subject to certain exceptions, members receive the publications of the Society, the cost of producing which far exceeds the membership fee. This is rendered possible by reason of the aid accorded the Society by the State. Of the work and ideals of the Society this magazine affords, it is believed, a fair example. With limited means, much has already been accomplished; with ampler funds more might be achieved. So far as is known, not a penny entrusted to the Society has ever been lost or misapplied. Property may be willed to the Society in entire confidence that any trust it assumes will be scrupulously executed.

The WISCONSIN MAGAZINE OF HISTORY is published quarterly by the Society, at 450 Ahnaip Street, Menasha, Wisconsin, in September, December, March, and June, and is distributed to its members and exchanges; others who so desire may receive it for the annual subscription of two dollars, payable in advance; single numbers may be had for fifty cents. All correspondence concerning the magazine should be addressed to the office of the State Historical Society, Madison, Wis.

Entered as second-class matter, December 17, 1917, at the post office at Menasha, Wisconsin, under the act of March 3, 1879.

OUR CONTRIBUTORS

Gen. Charles King ("Memories of a Busy Life") resides in Milwaukee. He is a well-known writer as well as a distinguished soldier and officer.

Hon. D. J. Gardner ("Incidents in the Early History of the Wisconsin Lead Mines") is one of the best known attorneys of Grant County, a pioneer resident of Platteville, and a careful student of local history.

Rev. Truman O. Douglass ("Platteville in Its First Quarter Century") was for half a century a leading pastor and officer of the Congregational Church in Iowa and an historian of that church. He now lives in retirement at Claremont, California.

Maria Greene Douglass ("Personal Recollections of Platteville") is the wife of Truman O. Douglass.

Mrs. Angie Kumlien Main lives on the Alfahill Farm, near Fort Atkinson. She is a granddaughter of the pioneer naturalist Thure Kumlien and is a frequent contributor to farm journals.
